There are so many memories of Crickett over the years. There was handful of us Parrottsville girls that had sleep overs, class plays, field trips, basketball games- all accompanied with bouts of laughter. I will cherish her smile and sweet soul. She is an inspiration- Prayers for all of her family and our classmates. The Lord has a special angel in Crickett.

Rest well Crickett, you have fought a battle. I remember the first time I saw you when you came to visit your mother JoAnn at Cocke County Memorial hospital as it was called then. She and I worked as nurses there. You grew up and worked there too.\r\nLove Iva ❤️
