He was the best uncle a niece could ask for. Sucks that we lost touch to only spend two years catching up. I wont forget us staying up till 2am looking through family photos and taking about life.

I remember our younger days when Ralph and I would trade or sell vehicles and coon dogs with each other. Neither one of us came out ahead (lol). Ralph was a good man and he was always there for anyone who needed a helping hand. I could not had asked for a better brother in-law than him. My sadden condolences to everyone. He will be missed by many.

Dear Family, we are heartbroken about the loss of Ralph. He was the best friend and neighbor anyone could have. Had it not been for God placing Ralph at the right place and right time when we had the house fire, our parents would not have gotten out of the house. But that is who Ralph was, a loving, caring, giving and kind soul who was always willing to help anyone. We all loved him dearly, but especially mama who is devastated. May God give you all peace and comfort, and especially to Michael who he talked about all the time and loved dearly. Kate James, Dennis James, Barbara James Cureton and Herbert Cureton

Peggy, We were so sorry to learn of your brother Ralph's death. We know how close you were to your sister and brothers and how fondly you always spoke of them. I remember your brothers coming to my house when I donated our unused exercise equipment for them to auction off for St. Jude's. They were a riot trying to load all of the stuff and I kept finding more things!! I know you will really miss Ralph when you do your gardening at your farm, Please accept our deepest sympathies.
