Our deepest sympathy to all in the loss of Iva Lee. I have known her over 40 years, stretching back to our days at the Cocke County Banner and more recently the Newport Plain Talk. She was a truly gifted writer whose stories of growing up in the 40s and 50s are treasures. She truly loved all her kinfolks. This year's Hall Reunion won't be the same. Rest well, dear friend. I know you are singing with the angels!
