I'm so sorry for your loss. I have known Lucas for a long time but met him personal while I was dealing with court, with my ex, Lucas sat with me and my mom through the whole thing assuring me that everything was going to be okay and he was proud of me for how far I've come and leaving my abusive ex. Since then he has checked on me and made sure everything was still going good. He had a huge heart and I'm glad god gave me the chance to meet him. A young sweet soul gone to soon. His family and friends are in my prayers.

This whole family is very special to me and my family. I have stayed a many of nights with the older brothers and will always remember when we were horse playing in the house (while Larry Wayne wasn't home of course) little Lucas would jump in thinking one of his brothers needed some help.. I watched him grow up into a big stout bear of a man who had the most gentle heart of anyone I've ever met.. I don't think he would hurt even a fly.. Unless.. One of brothers needed help. It truly feels my heart with sadness to see this family go through this pain.. But I smile just a little bit when I think about that little boy who followed us around everywhere and how he loved his family with everything he had. I am so sorry Larry and Robin.. You were and are great parents and I can't imagine how hard this is on y'all. But please know that I am really here for you no matter what it may be.. Just remember that I'm right up the holler so no matter if it's day or night I will do whatever I can. Same goes to Josh, Ricky, Jacob and Matthew.. Y'all have always been there if I ever needed a shoulder to lean on so don't hesitate to call whenever yall need me to be that shoulder for you. I love y'all...
