Our deepest condolences to your family upon the passing of Jack. I've known him for 20 years, and yes, he is a part of our extended family at the Ranch. If the band was playing Jack Pack was there! He was such a kind and gentle soul and spitfire at times. He was a talented musician and in the last 13 years, my husband loved talking fishing with him. Jack was going to show him where the big ones were, too bad they never had the chance. He was a genuine soul and he will be greatly missed by us all! God speed Jack Pack, play a song for me!

Jackie & Delauna,
Find peace in knowing you made Jack's final struggle a little easier and that he left knowing you loved him. Never let the girls forget how much joy they brought to him.
Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened. Continue to celebrate his life!
