We are sad to hear about Aunt Frances' passing. We will keep each of you in our thoughts and prayers. I remember the one year she and Uncle James came to see us in Virginia and me, my mom and Aunt Frances played lots of scrabble. To this very day, I love the game and will always remember her through this enjoyment.

Francis was such a dear aunt who loved everyone she met. It was a such a joy to visit her, hear her stories, eat her fudge, and just enjoy her company. \r\n\r\nDear cousins, may you find comfort in the love of your siblings and the fond memories of your mom.
