Chet was the best little brother in the whole world. Try as I could, I could never beat him in basketball... but, I will always have so many memories of trying... well, to tell the truth, just all of the loving memories we would share with one another. We truly loved to "ride around" while we would "solve all of the world's problems"... along with a few of our own. We loved our times of going to the movies... sometimes 3 to 4 in one day. Sure, some may ask why... well, we just enjoyed the simpler things, but most of all, it was all about our time spent together. I loved my little brother with all of my heart and will miss him all of my days here on this earth. However, I know that he is at home with Jesus, momma and daddy, our older sister (Linda), aunt Pat and uncle Dale and their kids (Pal and Lee)... and so many other loving family members. I know that we will all be together once our time on God's earth is done. Oh what a celebration that will be. And who knows... maybe Chet will then give me many more opportunities to try and beat him at a one-on-one basketball game of "horse". I love and miss my little brother so much that my earthly heart hurts every day. But, the knowledge of God's everlasting love takes my hurt away and replaces that pain with sweet long lasting smiles. Chet, the love that you always shared, with everyone you met, brings back happy memories of the ways that momma and daddy raised Junior (Glen), me and you. Hey, give momma a big hug and "a kiss on the back of her neck"... or, as she would say... "bend over here and let me still a little sugar". With all of my brotherly love... Bert
