Obituary
Edna B. Derry Gregg, 108, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on Saturday, November 23, 2019 at her residence in Nashville TN.

She was born March 28, 1911 to the late Mary Jane and Jesse Derry and is preceded in death by her husband, Alonzo; infant daughter Imogene; son Lloyd "Stanley" and his wife Anna; her 3 brothers Robert, Earl and Fred; her sisters Unav and Mary Ellen.

Surviving are her granddaughters Janice (Merrill) Livingston, Pam Gregg, and Rita (Clarence) Livingston, 7 great grandchildren, 21 great great grandchildren, 20 great great great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was a devoted wife, loving mother, and amazing grandmother who embodied independence and love of family. We will sorely miss her.

The family would like to thank Alive Hospice of Nashville TN for their kindness, compassion, and guidance in Granny Edna's care.

Graveside services will be Wednesday, November 27, 2019 at 2PM in Union Cemetery with Bro. Donald Fain officiating.

Brown Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Ms. Edna Gregg.

I never had the pleasure of meeting my great-aunt Edna, but my mom, Frances Derry Wampler, talked of her often. My sister, did meet her as a small child. We wanted to take mom to see her Aunt Edna this past summer, but unfortunately, mom passed away on June 29th. I guess she is seeing her now, in heaven, with the rest of the family gone before them. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. Diana and Sharon Wampler

Aunt Edna was my great-aunt. My mother, Christine Derry Taylor, passed away in January 2001 not long after Aunt Edna moved to Nashville. They had always been very close. I had the privilege of spending a day in the summer of 2000 driving the two of them around Cocke County, seeing relatives, sightseeing places from their memories of growing up in the area, and visiting cemeteries where family members were buried. Aunt Edna was a joy to be around, feisty and in excellent health. My love and prayers to all of our family.
