When I was a kid, my family would visit Sylvia and the kids about every weekend. The adults would play card games well into the night. When I heard the game ending, I'd fake being asleep so I wouldn't have to go home. Cindy and I were pretty close back then; she was my confidant and protector in many ways. Being with my cousins always made me feel safe and loved. Anyway, Aunt Sylvia wouldn't let my parents wake me up to go home, and I always got to spend the night and get an extra day with my cousins!

My heartfelt condolences go out to each of my cousins and their families. Losing a mom is so very hard. But, I'd like to think our moms are playing bingo together again. Aunt Sylvia, your long journey home is finally over. Go rest and rejoice with the Savior. (And please hug my mom for me.)

I'm sorry for the family's loss. I am a volunteer at Newport Health and Rehab. I will miss Sylvia so much she was a wonderful lady and loved God. I would talk to her all the time and she always gave me a great big hug and a kiss on the cheek and call me her baby. She will be missed and I will never forget her. I will be praying for the family.
