I remember JoAnn from Northport and her always saying Eddie was her under cover agent. That was a joke they had when Preacher Bohner was there. She is with Johnny and her Savior now and I am sure there is much rejoicing. Praying for you during this sad time.

Gone but never forgotten JoAnn, so many memories from her yelling at me telling me to get out of the road a car was coming, hollering across the road telling me to come get some ice cream or to come swim in the pool. Such a sweet loving woman. So dear to my heart! Prayers for the family, she is now in heaven and she is pain free. I'm sure she is Dancing up a storm with her sweet husband Johnny. ❤️

I'll never forget Ms. JoAnn. The first time I was privileged to take care of her, I walked into her room, she looked at me, her eyes lit up and she smiled at me and said loudly "YOU'RE BEAUTIFUL!" From that point on there was a bond. I love her so much. She even "adopted" my daughter as her grandbaby. She'd always save one of her fudge rounds that she used to get with her breakfast and tell me "Now you take this And give it to my Gracie." She also always talked about her Johnny and how much she missed him so. They are together again and are no longer in pain. I love you always, JoJo. I will NEVER forget the imprint you left on my heart and soul.
