Today I want to celebrate the life of my Uncle Robert. To me he was one of the most handsome, charming, witty and talented architects that I have ever known. I was always in Awe of the houses he created. Every since I was a kid coming to visit for the summer, he always welcomed me in his homes'. I loved to hear him talk. Just the sound of his southern twang and never knowing WHAT he might say enlivened my days. To my cousins, Filly, Edmond and Roddy. I love you all very much and you are covered in my prayers. Uncle Robert will be missed. Rest in Heaven my dear Uncle. Love your Great Niece, "Nene" aka Sarah Deniene Jones.
