I'm sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God will resurrect all those in His memory. (John 5: 28,29) God also promises to eliminate sickness and death forever. Revelation 21:4 says, God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Jennifer, Jaylen, and Todd we are sorry for your loss. Girls one of my favorite memories of you two is in the cow pasture in upper shut in riding four wheeler. You were both on together flying over the rocks and I had William to stop in road to make sure you both made it safely across field. He stopped but laughed at me and said "those girls are just gonna turn right back around and go again". Of course he was right that day as I looked in rear view mirror and watched until out of sight. God had His hands around you both that day and every day since. Please know that you are loved!

I feel so selfish wishing that I could bring you back. I know that you are in a better place, but it breaks my heart because I never got to say goodbye. What would i give to be sitting at the pool and laughing like we use too. You and your family was more than just friends, we were all ONE big family.

Dear Tina, If i would have known that would have been the last time I saw or spoke to you, i would have hugged you and never let go. I would have stayed up all night to hear your life's story. That is why the saying never take life for granted is so true. God gives but he also takes away.
