I am so heartbroken for your family. This hits so close to home. Billy went to school with Hanna from kindergarten on. I want to even think I was one of the nurses who helped when he was born, but I can't remember exactly. He was always the shy guy on all the trips I got to go on with the classes, but always polite and would run and hang with the others. I had not seen him as much during high school, rare times getting on the bus at the high school. I cannot imagine what you are experiencing. None of us ever imagine losing our children, never. I can't even begin to know what you are going through. I am praying for your family, that God leads you through the next few days and years to come, that He will give you strength and comfort. God says He will never leave you or forsake you, He follows you through every footstep. I know it will be hard, but remember that, pray and ask Him to guide you. I will. With loving thoughts, Melanie James
