Obituary

Mary B Fredette, after a long battle with breast cancer, passed away November 12, 2013. She is survived in death by her husband Richard Fredette, her son Brian Fredette and wife Lisa. Her daughter Michele Fredette Seay and husband Chris, and her Favorite grandson Jake. Also survived by her long time friends Lyanne and Dave Anthony. And her sisters Ruth Collier, Fran Fuller and Sharon Mattiaccio. She was preceded in death by her parents Frances and Mary B Arroway. Also her long time friend Kitty Pope. Mary was very fond of her role in the Cub Scouts and her Brownie Troup. Her love of sewing and arts and crafts can be found on and in many homes around the area. She also has a passion for healing and was dedicated to her 24 year nursing career at Morristown Hamblen Hospital starting with pediatric nursing and ending as House Supervisor. Services will be held at the First United Methodist Church in Newport TN, located at 212 Washington Ave, Newport TN 37821. Receiving friends will be Saturday November 16 at the church from 2pm till 4pm, with a service following at 4 pm. Brown Funeral Home is honored to serve the Fredette family.

Uncle Richard, Michel, Chris, Jake, Brian and Lisa, Words cannot express how saddened we are to hear of your mom's passing. She was the best aunt ever. We were sooooo sorry that I couldn't be there with all of you to say goodbye. Know that we are thinking of her always and all of you. Mary was the most selfless person I know, always looking out for others. Love always, Gena, John, Aiden and Avery
