My heart goes out to the Parton family. Travis and Matilda, you had a great person for a father. I always enjoyed talking with him every time I would come and visit. I am very saddened by this loss. Don not see this only as time of mourning, but also use as a time to celebrate his life, share all the wonderful memories that you had with him, Cherish those moments, for this way he will never truly be gone. He will always live on inside your hearts and your fondest memories. I send you my condolences and send you my prayers. R.I.P. Mr. Parton. You were one great person and loving father.

Matilda, I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear father. I wish there were magic words that could some how make sense of this tragedy but nothing can change the pain you are dealing with. I know it sounds cliché, but time will heal your broken heart. Trust me I know. If Bob and I can help you in any way please let us know. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.
