We were so sorry to hear about Burce's passing. He did live a good long life and I know you all will miss him terroubly. He is in a better place now with no suffering. He was a good man. I remember him in his younger years. He and Mama talked about how they met and just laughed. They were cousins and neighbors and didn't know each other. His mother Ida was mamaw's younger sister and she talked about her a lot when I was growing up. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time of loss. I love you all. Mary Lou
