Mollie, I was so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. Please know that you and your family are in mine and Firman's thought's and prayers. I can say I know what you are going through since I lost my mother four years ago last Saturday and eventhough you have the assurance your mother is now in a better place you still miss her and long for her presence. I pray that God will wrap his loving arms around you and your loved ones and shelter you with his care during this time of loss. May God Bless All of you.
