My husband and I got the honor to eat with Mr. Ferguson at Cracker Barrel one night. He was there alone so we asked if we could join him. What a kind soul. His obituary is 100% correct. We were strangers at the beginning of our meal but by the end, one thing was truly evident, he surely loved his family. We are very sorry for your loss.

Thank you for taking the time to write this comment, and thank you for sitting with him that night. He loved Cracker Barrel and Waffle House. He wasn't a big talker, but I know he appreciated you and your husband spending time with him. He was a very kind soul, and I can't say enough about him. He truly did love all of us. Thank you again, from the bottom of my heart. I'm glad he was able to meet you both and enjoy your company. It takes people with kind souls to be kind to someone you don't know. We appreciate you and your husband!

Thank you for the kind words, and thank you for sitting with him that night. I'm sure he enjoyed you and your husband's company as much as you enjoyed his. He wasn't much of a talker, but he was a kind soul. Thank you for taking the time to write this comment and for being a kind soul yourselves. We appreciate you!
