Chad O Stokely lit a candle in honor of Retta.

Retta was such a sweet soul there was never a time in my life I can look back and say that she was unfriendly to me. I hadn't seen her in years and then I was reconnected with her when I moved in the apartment complex where she resided. When she seen me it was like there was never a time in absence between us. She was always upbeat and tried to be happy around the people that were her family and friends. I have been privileged to know her and her family. She is at peace and no longer in pain and her days here on this earth are all done and she is now with God and his angels where no sickness, heartaches, or worries no longer exist. She is going to be missed by those who loved her but we don't have to see her in the position where she was n knowing she has a new body and she is at peace makes it easier to say our temporary good byes here on earth and know that when we meet again we will be able to have eternity in the place where Jesus has Gone to prepare for those who are accepting the way to enter into the paradise of heaven and get to stroll the streets of gold. Until we meet again my friend, I love n will miss seeing you. 🙏🌸🌈🙏
