The best man, dad and grandfather I've ever met. My kids all called him grandpa Don. His smile lit up a room. Both Karen and Don were the best. Christmas's at their house was always so special.

There are many memories that comes to mind and a few things he taught me. I'll never forget the patience and love he showed me when I threw a baseball through his living room window. I'm sure he was mad as hell, but never let it show. He and his grandson Joey, are the biggest reason I know and love Cribbage. Whether it was Christmas or family gatherings. And the one piece of advice I should listen to more, don't swing your driver as hard as you can (hole 3 at Camelot). Funny after story, grandma Don got a speeding ticket on 41 right after that haha. He was quite the lead foot

Met Don at Karaoke several years ago. He loved to sing and we enjoyed listening to him and fellowship with him. He was a gentle spirit and a very nice man. He will truly be missed

Both Don and Karen were regular followers of Milwaukee local live music. They were more like family than fans or just friends. May they dance together in heaven for eternity. The Britins
