When I started attending Lincoln Avenue Baptist Church, Henry was one of the first people I met. He greeted everyone he knew--and didn't know! Henry always loved the opportunity to sing a hymn in front of the church--and we were always happy to hear him sing praises to Jesus! Henry was always interested in what was going on and learning new things. Whenever he saw his Guatemalan friend, Erick, he would greet Erick in Spanish and ask if Erick understood him. He was always delighted when Erick said he did. I was also impressed that he remembered everyone's birthday, esp. because I have problems remembering the birthdays of my family! He will be sorely missed here, but I know Jesus welcomed him with open arms and the phrase "Well done, good and faithful servant!" Henry is now praising and worshipping the One who loved him best!

I am sorry to learn of the death of Henry. He was an inspiration to me and to many others he met. Henry always had a very positive attitude and loved to talk. I was glad to see him the day he and his dad came by to see me in the newsroom, and he was intrigued by the radio newsroom. Blessings to all of his family.
