Doris was a wonderful Christian lady. A special memory stands out to me when her daughter Frieda became very ill, I remember as she was about to go to California to be with her daughter, She held her Bible in her lap I remember thinking, this Mother is going pray her daughter thru this crisis. And she did. I am not sure how well she got, but God granted her more time. Her daughter dis pass away later, but I will always remember Doris holding her Bible on her lap as she left to go to her girl. A praying, Christian Mother is more beautiful than rubies.
