Our hearts are heavy upon Wayne's passing. Wayne was a wonderful friend throughout the years, and we will miss him dearly. We remember a time in our lives after a serious car accident, recovering for months at home when Wayne came multiple times to sit with us and visit, and always came carrying a big basket of food lovingly prepared by Mary. It meant so much to us. And the most special times we spent with Wayne was in fellowship at St. Tide Baptist Church. We will always cherish those memories. To the family, we know your hearts are broken. We pray God will bring peace to your hearts and courage to your spirit in the days ahead. Love, Norma & Edmon Seay
